Canton to get own mailing address; chances good for local post office

By DARLENE STINSON

Post office authorities may christen Canton Township with its own zip code and mailing address and scrap plans to build an enlarged postal facility within the Plymouth city limits.

Officials of the Detroit Postal District have submitted a recommendation to the U.S. Postal Service's Regional Office in Chicago to create a Canton zip code and consolidate the township's four existing delivery routes into one, according to U.S. Rep. William Ford (D-Taylor), a member of the House of Representatives' Post Office and Civil Service Committee and House whip for Michigan.

THE RECOMMENDATION, Ford said, includes scrapping plans to build a new Plymouth Post Office on a proposed site on Ann Arbor Trail near Hamilton, owned jointly by the City of Plymouth and the Pilgrim Non-Profit Housing Corp.

Although the postal issue is still in the recommendation stage, Ford (whose 15th District includes Canton) is optimistic about the recommendation's approval.

"It is a logical and practical way to meet the postal problems caused by Canton's tremendous growth in the past decade and to prepare for its anticipated growth in the coming years," Ford said.

"It is a necessary first step toward the ultimate establishment of a separate and independent Canton Post Office, which we should certainly plan for by the end of this decade."

Although local officials agree on Canton's need for a post office and separate identity, Plymouth officials point to the need for a larger, more modern postal facility in the City of Plymouth.

ORIGINAL PLANS by postal authorities pointed to the construction of a new post office in the City of Plymouth, proposed to replace the current facility on Penniman which services more than half of Canton Township. The enlarged Plymouth facility would have accommodated Canton's population growth.

Ultimate plans to construct a Canton Post Office apparently supercede the immediate need for a larger Plymouth facility in the eyes of postal officials, who submitted the recommendation opting for a separate Canton address.

Under the proposal, postal authorities would modify the current Plymouth facility to service all of Canton Township on a temporary basis. Four post offices—located in Plymouth, Wayne, Belleville and Ypsilanti—currently serve Canton Township residents.

"WE'RE NOT opposed to Canton having their own postal services," said Plymouth City Manager Fred Yockey, "but we're hopeful a more equitable solution can be arrived at."

The Plymouth Post Office, Yockey said, lacks sufficient space and parking areas as well as facilities for the handicapped.

"We're naturally disappointed that Congressman Ford is playing politics with our postal services," he said. "We feel the postal services in Plymouth and Plymouth Township should be in a modern building with adequate facilities for the handicapped."

City Commissioner Harold Guenther expressed similar sentiments.

"When Canton gets its own post office, our postal problems will be relieved to some extent," Guenther said, "but we'll still have an inefficient facility with inadequate parking. Part of the adverse conditions now is related to servicing Canton."

"I don't have any adverse reactions toward a Canton post office though. I don't think we have a right to any designs on Canton or to try to obstruct their place in the sun. I congratulate them on getting their house together."

CANTON SUPERVISOR Robert Greenstein says the postal issue in Plymouth and Canton are directly related. If Plymouth receives a larger post office, he says, Canton will never receive its own.

"The facility they have now is more than sufficient for Plymouth," Greenstein said. "Once they go to the expense of building a new post office in Plymouth, Canton will never get its own. As temporary an arrangement as possible (in the Plymouth Post Office) is best for Canton, because it

Shaggy dog show slated in Canton

Shaggy faces and thick burly coats will abound in Canton Township next weekend, as sheep dogs from the greater Detroit area, adjoining states, and Canada converge on Harvard Square Shopping Center for a shaggy dog show.

The "fun match," sponsored by the Old English Sheep Dog Club (OESD) of Greater Detroit, is scheduled for Sunday, Oct. 19, at 11 a.m. in a vacant store of the shopping center, at the northeast corner of Sheldon and Ford.

THE SHOW will feature how-to grooming and showing sessions as well as a confirmation show, judged by John Tacejko, central regional director of OESD. About 50 pups and adult shaggy dogs are expected to participate in the event.

"Sheep dogs are very popular right now," said Canton resident Bruce Phillips, a member of the OESD board of directors. "The club is striving toward a betterment of the breed."

The club provides persons with tips on the selection and purchase of sheep dogs and the characteristics to look for in the breed.

PHILLIPS AND his wife, Pam, will show one of their two sheep dogs, Alameda Shady Lady Effie, in Sunday's show. Preparation for the event will begin hours before.

Effie and other dogs enrolled in the event will sit on their owners' grooming table for a post-shampoo grooming session for hours the night before the show. The dogs will arise early Sunday morning for a brushing and trimming treatment complete with hair spray and comb.

For additional information about Sunday's show or sheep dogs, persons are asked to contact Carol Schmuicker, 22898 Talford, P.O. Box 309, Novi, Mich. 48050.

Busily preparing Alameda Shady Lady Effie, a 13-month-old sheep dog, for competition in Sunday's shaggy dog show is Canton resident Pam Phillips. Effie, as her owners affectionately call her, took first prize in the puppy category last spring in the Old English Sheep Dog Club's National Speciality in Connecticut. ## Markham house: Intriguing past social life

By ELINOR GRAHAM

There was a time, when it was very new, that no respectable woman would walk past the big white house on Sutton Street (now Penniman Avenue) without muttering, "hussy," or "bird in a gilded cage."

Jack Wilcox told the story of the house in which he was born to 130 members and guests at the Oct. 9 meeting of the Plymouth Historical Society. Wilcox still lives in the family home on the corner of Penniman and Union.

Although the statues, fountains, pergola, gazebo, fish and lily ponds are gone, the house retains its imposing air. It is a landmark of downtown Plymouth.

THE HOUSE was built in 1903 by W.F. Markham, manufacturer of the King air rifle. He already had a house on the other side of Kellogg Park where he lived with his wife and three children.

But Markham had fallen in love with Miss Carrie Shortman, a very young stenographer who worked for him. His wife refused to consider divorce. To the horror of all right-thinking townspeople, Markham built a house for Carrie.

He hired the best carpenters, bought the finest materials, and soon Carrie was ensconced in a $25,000 show place.

As she reclined in a swing on the second story porch, the ladies of the town made nasty remarks in passing. Markham had the porch enclosed to shield her from their righteous indignation.

HIS WIFE DIED and Markham and Carrie were married. He sold his business and a notice appeared in the Plymouth Mail which was of great interest to young Mr. and Mrs. George Wilcox.

The Markham house on Ann Arbor Trail was for sale. It had three fireplaces, a lovely veranda on three sides and the third story was paneled as a smoking lounge.

The Wilcoxes were an old Plymouth family who had built the flour mill down on the river. George and his wife lived on the hill above the mill in the Greek Revival house built in 1842. They had two little girls, Margaret and Julia.

Jack Wilcox said he believes living right downtown appealed to his mother and the Markham house was a bargain—$4,000.

But they missed buying it by 10 minutes. It had been sold just before they arrived—and they were very disappointed.

WITHIN A SHORT time, another notice appeared in the newspaper. The Markhams were moving to California and the big white house was for sale.

The Wilcoxes looked at it, went home, talked it over, and decided they couldn't possibly afford it.

But when Mrs. Wilcox received a call the next day, asking for their decision, she said, "We'll take it." They were committed.

Jack Wilcox has a letter written by his mother, dated Oct. 1 1911. She says, "George and I are congratulating ourselves on our new home" and "we will turn the conservatory into a playroom for the children."

After years of curiosity about the place, the Wilcoxes had many callers.

There was much to marvel at. There were 500 goldfish in two pools. There were three live deer, a round lily pond and exotic flowers. There was a summer house, fountains and statues, including Mercury, messenger of the gods, whose nakedness was draped at its base. There were latticed arches and walks.

INSIDE THERE were 17 rooms with 12-foot ceilings, crystal chandeliers, and a six by 17-foot window of stained beveled glass. There was a steam-heating system and the first electric lights in town. The doorknobs were of cast brass and a special pump supplied the bathrooms with soft water.

One of George Wilcox's first acts in his new home was to give a half twist to the letter M in the cast iron arch over the front gate. The resulting W is still there.

He also decided to fill in the fish ponds after Margaret fell in. Julia kept her head above water by hanging onto her clothing until their mother came to the rescue.

The barn was sold 60 years ago to the Plymouth Grange for a meeting place. The building between the Grange and the house was the first Episcopalian church in town.

JACK WILCOX was born in the house and he has seen many changes.

He said that as a young boy he was always asked to leave the room when the conversation involved the first resident of the house.

He recalls seeing a stranger taking pictures of their house. When Jack asked him why, he said he was from a Los Angeles newspaper and he wanted the picture for a story about a lawsuit.

Markham had retired to some property he owned near Los Angeles where he had built an even grander home for Carrie and himself. His holdings had been extensive and he had sold a good portion of Hollywood to the new moving picture companies.

When he died, he was many times a millionaire. His young wife was named in his will as chief beneficiary with her share going to his lawyer when she died. Markham's three children were left comparatively small stipends.

In the litigation which followed, William Gibbs McAdoo, the man who was credited with keeping the United States out of the League of Nations, won the case for the Markham children.

The newspaperman later sent clippings of the story and pictures. When his mother read the articles, she exclaimed, "Why Reuben Schmidt, I always wondered what became of him."

Long known as the Wilcox House, the big white house that stands on the corner of Penniman and Union was built in 1903 by W.F. Markham for Miss Carrie Shortman. (Staff photo)

Recreational vehicle parking measure planned by Canton

Owners of recreational vehicles in Canton Township may soon have to abide by a proposed ordinance governing storage of such vehicles on residential property.

Township ordinance officer Bruce Phillips Tuesday will introduce a proposed recreational vehicle ordinance to township board members at the board's regular meeting, scheduled to begin at 8 p.m. in the township fire-hall, 128 Canton Center Road.

The proposed ordinance permits the parking of mobile homes, automobile trailers and other recreational vehicles in rear or side yards, provided the parking location complies with set-back requirements for accessory buildings, outlined in the zoning ordinance.

Under the proposed ordinance, non-residents must obtain temporary permits to park recreational vehicles on non-approved property for more than 24 hours. The permits would allow the parking of recreational vehicles for a maximum two weeks.

All recreational equipment stored on township land must carry a current year's license or registration and be kept in good repair, according to the ordinance.

Under the proposed law, persons cannot occupy vehicles or connect the vehicles to any utilities except for repair or servicing reasons on lands not approved for such purposes.

Township board members recently charged Phillips with drafting of a proposed recreational vehicle ordinance after numerous residents complained about vehicular parking problems in their neighborhoods.

Introduction of the ordinance does not appear on Tuesday's agenda. Discussion of the proposed ordinance was added to Tuesday night's proceedings after the agendas were printed.

Other issues earmarked for discussion or approval Tuesday night include the township's 1976 budget; the parliamentary procedure needed to govern abstentions at the board table; the need to refurbish the board's meeting room; and appointments to the Canton Township Bicentennial Commission.

NOISE RELIEF

Residents in Plymouth and Canton townships living along I-275 freeway still have a chance to get relief from noise of trucks and cars buzzing by. The state has forwarded a request for federal funds to build noise barriers. P3A.

READING SIDEWAYS

Who would ever read a newspaper sideways? The answer is shown pictorially on today's opinion page. P6A.

Plymouth, Canton may get I-275 noise barriers

The state has submitted an application for federal funds for traffic noise barrier construction along selected parts of I-275 in Canton and Plymouth townships.

The application to the Federal Highway Administration was filed by the Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation.

Residential areas in Plymouth-Canton affected by I-275 noise levels include: Stoneybrook and Deer Creek, in Canton; Bradbury Park, Cambridge Village and Cambridge Green, Arbor Village, Plymouth Village East, Old Orchard, G.H. Robinson subdivision, and Timberly Farms in Plymouth Township.

The application also calls for noise barriers at the interchange of I-275 and I-96 in Livonia.

THE SPECIFIC areas where the state is asking for noise barriers is on both sides of I-275 from Koppnick Road in Canton to just south of Ann Arbor Road in Plymouth Township.

Another section of barriers is on the east side of I-275 from just south of Ann Arbor Trail to Edward Hines Drive, and on the west side from Ann Arbor Trail to Hines Drive.

The last section proposed is in Li-vonias along the northeast entrance ramp of I-96 onto I-275.

The selected areas recommended for sound barriers have 103 single-family houses and 62 apartment buildings.

If approved as recommended, the total length of the barrier would be 21,000 linear feet at an estimated cost of $80 per foot for a project expense of $1.7 million.

THE STATE suggests that noise levels along the freeway will be much lower in future years than now because of increased law enforcement efforts and technological improvements.

"However, because of the uncertainty of the timetable for these future events, and of the magnitude of the reductions that may result, the department believes it appropriate to treat the problem as it appears to exist at the time of opening—not as some hopefully quieter future time."

The highway department states: "care must be used in the design of barriers to minimize the hazards of sharp shadows falling across the roadway; and to provide for drainage and snow removal."

The state says other potential noise problems may exist along other free ways, but these particular segments were picked for federal funding because the state believes such projects should be taken in logical and manageable size segments, because of a potentially critical noise problem in adjacent residential areas, because of protests from area residents and because of support of citizen complaints by city, state and federal officials and legislators.

TO DATE, noise abatement projects in Michigan have included a wooden wall along I-75 in Allen Park, a steel wall along I-75 in Southgate and an earthen mound along I-94 near Kalamazoo.

For noise barriers, the state prefers earthmound barriers wherever possible, earthmound-wall combinations where there isn't sufficient room for the full mound, and walls as a third priority.

For the I-275 segments, the state is recommending a concrete slab-panel type wall with some mounding where necessary and where space permits.

Halloween workshop

A Halloween workshop for Plymouth teachers, giving them suggestions for decorations and projects for their classes, was held last week. Among those on hand was Barbara Lockwood, a third grade teacher at Starkweather Elementary School.

(Staff photos by Maurie Walker)

All sorts of material, paper, sponge, plastic, paste and sissors are used in making Halloween items, learned Plymouth teachers at a recent workshop.

Schools get budget ideas from parents

Administrators from the Plymouth Community School District received a number of suggestions from parents at two budget review sessions this past week.

About 55 attended the Oct. 7 meeting in West Middle School and another 60 persons attended the Oct. 9 budget review session in East Middle School.

Although a number of parents were at both sessions, there were still more staff members than parents at each meeting.

Each meeting began with Supt. John M. Hoben and Ray Hoedell, assistant superintendent for business, outlining the proposed budgets and cuts being considered to balance expenditures with revenues.

Hoben stressed the recommended cuts were only suggestions and that the board of education would make the final decision when it adopted the operating budget for school year 1975-76.

Questions were answered and suggestions received for further study by the administration.

During the budget discussions, Hoben pointed out that the district expects student enrollment to reach the 19,000 mark by 1980. Although the district is faced with a budget pinch this year, he explained, it must also look ahead to the ramifications of a fast-growing student population.

Among the suggestions made was to cutback athletic expenditures. Specific suggestions were to eliminate the hockey program and boys' golf team.

A parent suggested that newsletters could be sent home with students instead of being sent through the mails.

Somebody asked if it wouldn't be more advisable to build up a contingency fund over the next couple years instead of budgeting a one per cent contingency into this year's budget.

Another person suggested the district start a campaign to encourage parents and children to conserve on school materials.

It was suggested that the CASTLES project be utilized this year entirely for teacher inservice with other inservice items in the budget being eliminated.

Some suggested asking for more operating millage, but it was pointed out this couldn't be done before Nov. 1 which is the deadline by which the board must adopt a balanced budget.

Jean Bemish and Rose Portelli, teachers at Miller Elementary School, cooperate on a project during the Halloween idea workshop.

Students petition against parking fee

A couple of students attending Plymouth Salem High have started a petition drive against charging parking fees at the Centennial Educational Park (CEP) site.

Curt Wick and Dave Montgomery, both students at Salem, had collected 600 signatures from students and then switched the emphasis of the petition effort to seek signatures from parents.

The students plan to approach the Plymouth Board of Education to ask for a policy change. If sufficient signatures are obtained, says Wick, they might be at tonight's (Monday) meeting of the board of education in the cafeteria of Plymouth Canton High.

STUDENTS DRIVING automobiles to the CEP park their vehicles in the Salem parking lot with the Canton lot reserved for staff and visitors.

Student drivers are given two options on parking fees: an annual permit at $10 per school year; or temporary parking at 10 cents per day with tickets purchased in lots of 10.

After filling out an application and submitting an operator's license, certificate of insurance, and proof of ownership, the student then obtains his parent's signature granting permission to drive to school.

MONTGOMERY feels the parking fee is unfair and is almost a form of double-taxation.

"Our parents and other taxpayers paid to have the parking lots built at the CEP. Now students have to pay a fee to use the parking lots."

Wick says the fee is supposed to cover the expense of providing security guards for the parking areas. "But we've checked with neighboring school districts and there are high schools which provide security guards and don't charge students a parking fee."

Although it varies, the parking fees generate about $3,000 a year which is insufficient to cover the wages of one security guard. Security guards also are responsible for security inside the school buildings, at school events such as football games, and for other areas on the CEP site. The parking fee has been charged since the CEP opened.

Wick and Montgomery would also like the administration or school board to consider opening the parking lot at Plymouth Canton to student parking.

Ann Depa, a teacher at Allen and Smith schools, demonstrates how to make papier-mache masks.

New Canton post office

won't be long before Canton can get a permanent facility.

The postal issue, Greenstein says, is a "number one priority" of the township's administration.

A Canton post office is needed, township officials maintain, to provide faster, more convenient postal services for township residents and establish an identity for the township, now divided by four mailing addresses.

Greenstein says he has received numerous complaints from Canton residents concerning mailing problems. Letters sent to Canton residents with the correct street address but incorrect city are currently returned to the sender.

"The feelings of residents is that we're being treated as a junior, rural area," Greenstein said. "We've now grown up to age. We feel we should be looked at in that way and receive our own identity. With a Canton zip, you'd be able to say Canton Township and get it here."

"I feel my close contacts with Congressman Ford and two previous trips to Washington helped a great deal to carry our message to those in power who make the decisions," the supervisor continued.

"I will continue to keep the pressure on, so we can ultimately enjoy the Canton Post Office in a building built for that purpose in Canton Township."

THE RECOMMENDATION submitted to postal authorities in Chicago would replace Canton's four mailing addresses with one—Canton Township. The Plymouth Post Office would service Canton residents on a temporary basis.

The Canton route consolidation and remodeling of the Plymouth Post Office, needed to accommodate all of Canton under a single zip code, would probably take six months to a year, according to Ford.

In the meantime, he said, postal officials have installed three new mail collection boxes in the Canton area and plan to establish a contractual station with limited postal services in the Ford Road area.

ALTHOUGH Ford and Canton officials are optimistic about the recommendation's approval, Jim Houk, president of the Pilgrim Non-Profit Housing Corp., is adopting a wait-and-see attitude. Pilgrim owns the land, proposed as a construction site for the new Plymouth Post Office.

"Politics is working on this. We're working on it too," said Houk, who noted efforts to enlist the aid of U.S. Rep. Marvin Esch (R—Ann Arbor), whose 2nd District includes Plymouth and Plymouth Township, in the effort to construct a new Plymouth Post Office.

"I think it's a little premature to say what's going to happen. It's just in the form of a recommendation now. I'm not saying it will be approved. I'm not saying it won't."

Injunction issued by township

Plymouth Township Constable Don King served Plymouth West Five Associates and Doug Roe, excavator, with a restraining order prohibiting removal of sand from a site at 50360 Ann Arbor Road east of Napier Road.

A determination will be made by Wayne Circuit Court Judge Benjamin Burdick with a hearing set for Oct. 17 on whether permission granted in 1971 to a previous owner is still in effect.

When Bud Gould was granted permission in 1971 to apply for a permit to remove sand from the property, Plymouth Township Ordinance 27 was in effect. This gave the zoning board of appeals authority over sand or gravel removal requests.

As of April 15, 1975, Ordinance 47 turned these powers over to the planning commission.

The township contends permission granted in 1971 is no longer valid. Roe contends an agreement is an agreement and the township should honor its 1971 decision.

Frank Millington is the only member of the present township board who was on the 1971 board.

He says, "Frankly, if the new owners would have gone before the planning commission, gone through normal channels, this hearing in circuit court would have been unnecessary."

editorial opinion

Are you confused on community funds?

Many Canton residents are confused about collection and distribution of community funds. The main question is whether to give to the Plymouth Community Fund or the Detroit Area Torch Drive.

The best approach would be to give to both, for those who can afford a dual donation. But those who feel they can afford to contribute only to one should be informed of the role each organization plays in Canton Township. This is particularly true for new residents who are unaware of the relationship of the two community funds to the township.

BEFORE 1949 there were numerous charities and community funds making solicitations. Businesses received 130-140 separate requests for gifts each year.

So in 1949, the United Foundation was organized to handle the needs of 149 organizations in the metropolitan Detroit area. At that time, residents of the City of Plymouth and Plymouth Township elected not to become a part of United Foundation.

As a result, the Plymouth Community Fund has remained as a separate entity, serving programs available primarily to Plymouth residents.

This has caused confusion in Canton because township residents aren't eligible for almost all the services of the Plymouth Community Fund.

To compound the situation, a Canton resident who contributes to the Plymouth Community Fund may be excluded from the services of other funds because of various misunderstandings. This is most likely to happen to Canton residents with Plymouth mailing addresses because Plymouth residents are excluded from United Fund services.

TWO EXAMPLES illustrate the problem:

A family in Plymouth who may need the aid of the Detroit Orthopedic Clinic may find they aren't eligible for such services at fees in accord with their ability to pay.

Similarly, a Canton family with a Plymouth mailing address that contributed to the Plymouth Community Fund may find they are also in the same situation.

Of the dozen or so services financed by the Plymouth Community Fund, the ones which are of some benefit to Canton residents are: the Plymouth-Canton YMCA, the Plymouth-Canton Junior Athletic Association, senior citizens programs, Family Service (in Washtenaw County) and possibly the Plymouth Dental Fund, although there seems to be some questions about the latter's being available to Canton residents.

Agencies funded by the Torch Drive for Canton residents include American Red Cross, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Michigan Cancer Foundation, Visiting Nurse Association and Salvation Army.

Because Plymouth Community Fund contributes to some agencies serving Canton, residents should consider donating to the local agency. But they should be aware that many of the Canton organizations do receive their funding from United Fund or United Community Services.

The cancer society serving Plymouth community does accept residents from Canton Township. Similarly, there are Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops in middle schools of Plymouth Community School District which includes Canton children as members and receive funding from the Plymouth Community Fund.

So it's your choice on which group to support, or whether to contribute to both. We hope this information will be helpful and lessen the confusion.

The Stroller

Needed: humor

A fellow has to have a keen sense of humor these days if he wants to get along in this topsy-turvy world even if the joke is on him.

The Stroller found this out and he's still chuckling over the fact that the laugh was on him right on his own front yard.

For the past several weeks, he has had a longing to join the tourist army and go north to enjoy the color season. He had visions of the rich paintings displayed by Mother Nature and each day regretted that time did not permit him to enjoy the upper peninsula in what many persons claim is the greatest season of the year.

He had visions of going as far north as Copper Harbor and once again enjoying the sight as you travel Brockway Mountain Drive and look down on the autumn leaves in their fanciest dress.

ONE YEAR The Stroller was fortunate enough to drive to Copper Harbor in the middle of autumn. But it was just his luck that it rained each day of the journey and the real beauty was lost.

It didn't help any the other day when a friend dropped by after playing in a golf tournament at Grayling and didn't hesitate to say that he was almost tempted not to come home.

He told The Stroller that the color up there was something no artist could paint.

All a fellow could do was stand and listen, grit his teeth, and feel sorry for himself that he couldn't go north to see it. From what the friend said, the scene must have been like many he used to see in the East during his travels back home.

In former days, the greatest trip in the world (at least to The Stroller) was a drive along the New England coast up through the boulevard of lobster pots and on to Bar Harbor, Maine. What a sight with the Atlantic ocean lapping the shore!

On the homeward journey we'd turn west and travel through the Green and White mountains in Vermont and New Hampshire. In the fall it was a real treat riding along the rolling countryside and peering at the multi-colored leaves as Mother Nature was putting on her show.

Once through these mountains we'd head into the Adirondacks and then the Catskills in New York before traveling the upper reaches of Pennsylvania. This is a sight that never would tire the eyes.

That's why, each year at this time, The Stroller gets a longing for a color tour. He continually dreams of those eastern stages where Mother Nature performs. And the closest he comes is the fine ride to Ann Arbor these fall Saturday afternoons to sit among the multitudes in the Michigan Stadium.

HE ENJOYED this ride a week ago and the sight of the autumn leaves set him longing for the north country.

So there was nothing else to do the following day but to take a ride up to the Michigan State campus, which is much like the journeys he used to take to Princeton for the football games in his younger days.

The ride was fine. The color scene at Kensington Park was a delight to the eye. So was the short span just north of Howell on the expressway. And the Spartan campus was a great splash of color.

After viewing that, The Stroller felt he had to be content for the year. Then came the surprise—and a laugh.

While raking the leaves on the front lawn that seemed to be more abundant than usual (or was it age creeping up), a stranger drove by, then stopped with his family.

"Do you mind," he said, "if we just take our time looking around at the wonderful scenery in your yard and this road. The trees are just beautiful. In fact, we've driven quite a few miles and this is the finest color we've seen."

The laugh was on The Stroller. What he had been longing for, others found right in his front yard.

Daniels Den

By EMORY DANIELS

A couple months ago, I announced that this was your newspaper, and your help and advice can make this one of the best local newspapers in Michigan.

A lot of you have been very helpful offering opinions and suggestions, many of which have been adopted. Well, if you've got the time and interest, I need your help again.

THE PAST couple of weeks, I have been mulling over in my own mind a lot of questions about the editorial page in this newspaper.

Although a lot of opinions of my own have popped up, none is conclusive enough to answer all the questions. So if we put our heads together, maybe all the questions can be answered. Let's try and see what happens.

YOU DON'T have to answer all the questions. Maybe just a couple questions interest you and, if that's the case, just limit your comments to those. If they all interest you, please write in whatever form of advice you wish.

Mail opinions to the Observer & Eccentric, in care of Daniels Den, 461 S. Main, Plymouth 48170.

So much for the administrative details. Let's turn now to the questions buzzing in my head that can be answered much easier with your advice. As I said before, this is your newspaper and you want to make it the best.

FIRST, would you like to see editorials in the Thursday edition only, Monday only, or in both editions?

Would you like to see Daniels Den every week or only as the author gets inspired enough to crank one out? Do you like to read personal columns, such as Daniels Den or The Stroller, or would you like editorial pages to be confined to editorials only?

Does it confuse you when one editorialist (say Publisher Philip H. Power) expresses one opinion and another writer (such as myself) expresses a different or opposing viewpoint?

Would this confuse you as to where the newspaper stood on a particular issue as opposed to an opinion held by an individual writer? Would it confuse you if those differences were in the same edition on the same page? Is this good or bad?

How do you feel about editorial positions? Are we too wishy-washy, too aggressive, or too middle-of-the-road? Do we give enough thought before expressing opinions? Are our expressions of opinion off-the-wall or do you find them reasonable even though you may not always agree?

THESE ARE a lot of questions and you can see why I don't want to decide these issues unilaterally without hearing from you.

It would be a lot to expect to ask you to answer each one. But if these issues turn you on, I will certainly read everything submitted to me in writing.

It's almost certain that when decisions are made, they won't please everyone. One decision may satisfy you and make me uncomfortable, and vice versa. But let's give it a try and see what we, collectively, can come up with.

I'll be looking forward to this week's mail.

An avid reader

Everyone reads the Observer & Eccentric in the Plymouth-Canton community, including Lillie Nadine Thompson, age 14 months, of Plymouth. Lillie doesn't seem too impressed with the page one news stories, but has discovered that holding a paper sideways gives her a different perspective on the photographs. Lillie took time out to read last Thursday's edition while her mother was visiting with staff members in the Observer & Eccentric news office at 461 S. Main in Plymouth. # In The Pocket

By W.W. EDGAR

If the Mid-West Women's Open, which got under way last Sunday at Crown Lanes in Troy, proves a success it is certain to be copied in many other sections.

This new tournament is a scratch affair—something for which the women have been searching—and brings together the top stars in the area each month in head-to-head competition.

As one of the all-stars put it, they are becoming a bit tired of bowling in handicap affairs and even their being limited almost entirely to team play in the Bowlerettes and the Ladies Major League.

The scratch affair gives them the chance to bowl match games on a singles format. It should prove interesting and should go a long way in providing high class keen competition.

The Open is modelled after the Men's Michigan Majors in which all entries compete in a qualifying round and the top dozen move into the finals for head to head battling. The women have reduced the number of finalists to six with 30 points be credited for each victory and 15 for a tie, plus the bonus points for actual pinfall.

THE BONANZA CLASSIC bowlers who have been producing extremely high scores at Orchard Lanes, found the going a little tougher last week at Country Lanes in Farmington.

None of them broke the 700 barrier, which was quite a disappointment. The best individual series was a 692 by Bob Chamberlain that enabled his K & S team to roll a 3022 count and enter a four way tie for first place with Stroh, Bonanza and the Bowling Proprietors team.

A RE-CHECK of the records in the Michigan Majors monthly tournament bowled at Howe's Lanes in Clarkston, reveals that Les Crawford of Belleville rolled three games totalling 803 and qualifies him for an ABC "800" medal.

ONLY ONE bowler bettered 700 in the Wonderland Classic this week after a month of high scoring. The loner was Tony Thivers who linked games of 247, 221 and 266 for 734.

This big count enabled the Farris Bros. team to post a 3119 series on games of 1076, 1028, and 1014.

This series gave the Farris squad a five pin edge over Commercial Erectors who faltered after posting games of 1028 and 1110. The final game was a mere 976 for the 3114.

Second high man for the night was Harry Fill with a 698.

SEVERAL NEWCOMERS stole the show in the Ladies Classic at Garden Lanes. Dorothy Johnson topped the field with a 674 while Dorothy Jenkins rolled a 640 and was followed by Tess Klann with a 621 and Bonnie Barnes with 603.

AT WESTLAND BOWL Jan Michael paced the Thursday afternoon women's league with 577 while Shirley Murphy set a new high mark for the season with a 221.

Judy Whalen also got into the pace setting record with a count of 560 that included a 230- high game of the season thus far. Shirley Le Blanc topped the league with a 567 to beat out Linda Johnson by two pins.

It pays to know a DETROIT BANK-er better.

"Maybe you can't afford to get the highest interest for your savings."

Everybody wants to get the best return from their savings. But having your money readily available is important, too. To make sure you get the best of both, it pays to talk to a DETROIT BANK-er. Someone like Fred Davis, Officer-in-Charge at the Detroit Bank & Trust main office.

What's the highest annual rate I can get for my savings?
"Our highest annual return is 7-1/2%, but there are these important things to consider. To get this rate, you must leave at least $1,000 on deposit for six full years, and secondly, there are rather stiff penalties imposed by Federal regulations for early withdrawals. This is true for all banks."

So if I came to you with $1,000, what kind of savings account would you recommend?
"We offer six different savings plans at Detroit

Bank & Trust. The one best for you would depend on many things. Whether or not you were married, how long you could afford to leave the money in the bank, and what savings goals you had in mind. You may come in looking for 7-1/2% interest, but may find out that it's the availability of money that you need more than a higher interest rate. You might end up choosing a 5% annual rate on our regular passbook account, but you'll be able to get your hands on your money any time you need it."

What's the best way to start saving?
"You just have to make up your mind that you're going to set aside a certain amount each week or every payday for savings. The amount really isn't as important as regular deposits are."

How can I get that regular savings habit?

"The easiest way I know of is to use Check and Save at Detroit Bank & Trust. That's where you authorize us to take a certain amount from your checking account each month, or bi-monthly, and put it into your savings account. It's very painless."

Why should I get to know you better?

"The better I know you, the more help I can be to you, not only in directing you into the type of savings plan that will best suit your needs, but also helping you with your other banking requirements. As DETROIT BANK-ers, we always try to look out for the best interests of our customers. We're here to serve you."

DETROIT BANK & TRUST
Member FDIC

"The amount you save really isn't as important as regular deposits are."

"Many people who come in looking for the highest possible interest rate often choose a regular passbook savings account because it's more convenient."

"We try to direct people into the type of plan that's going to fit their needs. We always try to look out for the best interests of our customers."

you ought to know a DETROIT BANK-er better

The trouble with buying a new set of wheels is you have to pay for the whole car.

And that can get expensive. You might need a little help. In that case, see HFC about a Shoppers Loan to help pay for that new car you've been eyeing. Or, for that matter, for any other shopping purchase you need. With a Shoppers Loan from HFC, you may borrow up to $1500. And that can save you a lot of trouble.

Know your meat by its muscle

By MARGARET MILLER

"Last night I cooked the best roast yet in 16 years of marriage."
"I know now how to select cuts of meat by specific identifying features instead of on a hunch."
"For the first time in my life I knew what I was doing when I shopped for meat last weekend."

The comments come from three area women who are more knowledgeable in meat matters because they've taken a special Michigan State University Cooperative Extension course.

The course, sponsored by the extension and Meijer's Thrifty Acres in Canton Township, recently was completed in three sections of three classes each in the Meijer's meeting room.

More than 250 women—with a few men joining them—came to gain expertise for stretching their meat dollars.

ADA SHINABARGER, food marketing specialist in the extension's Grand Rapids office, came to present the know-your-meat course she has been giving all around Michigan.

"The thing I try to get across," she said, "is that there are only two things that determine tenderness of a piece of meat—its position on the carcass and its grade by government standards."

"So, by learning what the various cuts look like, people who take this course can then identify what they find on the meat counter, no matter what fancy names are put on the labels."

mal and the positions of the various cuts are a major tool in the instruction.

"They never forget, once they see a porterhouse steak next door to a pin-bone sirloin, how the two are related in tenderness," Miss Shinabarger said.

Joining her for the sessions on beef and pork was Dave Potter, meat specialist for 12 Meijer stores. He cut hunks of beef and pork for class use.

Being able to work with real meat is a great advantage, Miss Shinabarger said. "Slides don't show muscle," she explained.

She went on to say that it is how the muscle is used when an animal is alive that determines the tenderness after it becomes roasts and steaks and hamburger.

IN THE FIRST of the three sessions she explains the cuts to be found in the hind section of the animal, the location of the tenderest cuts. The second session is devoted to the relatively hard-working—and therefore less tender—front sections. The final day the students get into pork cuts.

"The bone structure is similar," said Miss Shinabarger. "They fly through pork."

At the end of the course, everyone writes out an "opinionaire," in which the knowledge gained is put into one's own words.

"I find doing that reinforces the understanding," Miss Shinabarger said, "and I'm always pleased to find out how much they have learned."

The end of the course also brings to each participant a certificate and an information kit.

THE SPECIALIST said the extension developed the course about six years ago because, as more different names for meat cuts found their way to the meat counters, there seemed a need for shoppers to understand how to know what they were buying.

"We've worked mainly with Meijer stores because they have the meeting

Ada Shinabarger and Dave Potter look over some of the cuts of meat used for their recent classes. (Staff photos by Bob Woodring)

Eleanor and Laurence Campbell, a Plymouth couple, and Caryl Marton of Canton receive from MSU extension home economist

Arleen Arnold a certificate showing they completed the meat shopping course.

Fire fighters raise funds to support burn institute

BY SHERRY KAHAN

When only a baby, Doug Wendt had his face burned beyond recognition by a fire. Today, 27 years and scores of operations later, this man from Fargo, N.D. will visit the area to teach the dangers of playing with fire.

Sponsored by the Westland Firefighters Association, Wendt will appear Monday, Oct. 13, at 7:15 p.m. in St. John Lutheran School, 2602 S. Wayne in Westland. A second appearance in the area will be on Wednesday, Oct. 15, at 7:30 p.m. in St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church, 17810 Farmington, Livonia.

Firemen, who could easily be content with their roles in rescuing burn victims, giving them first aid, and transporting them to hospitals, are tireless in their efforts to present educational programs like this one to the public.

They are also up to their helmets in fund raising, with the National Institute for Burn Medicine usually the beneficiary of their efforts.

This institution, located in Ann Arbor, supports the Burn Center at University Hospital in Ann Arbor. It also funds programs to train 750 physicians in the art of burn treatment, aids hospitals around the country in establishing their own burn centers, and each year at this time sponsors a burn awareness campaign.

Six metropolitan area fire departments are currently working on a comic program to raise money for this serious institution.

Called the "Almost Anything Goes Olympics," it is scheduled to take place in the coliseum at the State Fair Grounds on Sunday, Nov. 9 at 2 p.m.

Firemen promise that it will be a wild, crazy event with clowns, pie throwing, skits, and all kinds of odd-ball competitions now being conceived in the departments involved.

Sponsors of the olympics are the fire departments of Livonia, Dearborn, Detroit, Southfield, Pontiac and Warren. Tickets are $3, and children under five will be admitted free.

GARDEN CITY firemen were busy in the cause of burn medicine over the past weekend when they carried spare firemen's boots to a shopping center and asked the public to fill them with money for the burn institute.

Livonia firefighters raised more than $300 for the institute during Spree 75.

Canton Township firefighters have been spreading burn awareness during talks on fire prevention to school children in the area.

Redford Township has fund raising plans afoot. However, they have not yet been finalized.

JAYCEES ALL OVER Michigan have taken on the burn problem as one of their special interests. In 1975, Michigan chapters raised $215,000 for the institute, with the Livonia chapter contributing $4,000. The money was collected in Livonia by taking pictures of children on a fire truck at the Wonderland shopping center and soliciting Livonia businesses and industries.

Thanking the organization for its contributions, Dr. Irving Feller, president of the National Institute for Burn Medicine, said that the Jaycees have begun "to build an awareness with the public about the burn problem."

A SURGEON who specializes in burn cases, Dr. Feller is the kind of man to whom statues may be raised some day.

Originally he planned to be a veterinarian until a friend assured him, "most of the problems are on the other end of the leash."

Going into the study of medicine, Dr. Feller, while still a resident at University Hospital, saw two children die because of burns.

"Something clicked," said Dr. Feller. "It was obvious to me they died from complications and infection, not from the burn itself. It's hard to believe now, but at the time that was a revolutionary conclusion."

Dr. Feller was permitted to test his theories of burn treatment of a patient with a 70 per cent burn. The patient was the first patient with such an extensive burn to survive.

Committed by then to work in the field of burn medicine, He founded the Burn Center in 1959. It was the state's first facility of its kind.

Bottles tiny, collection large

By MARGARET MILLER

It was a case of love at first sight when Bennett Weiss walked past a New York city liquor store six years ago and spotted in its window a collection of small, decorative bottles.

He bought a couple of the miniature liquor bottles, and that was the start of a collection that now numbers more than 300 and is valued by its owner in the neighborhood of $3,000.

Since that first meeting, Weiss has been collecting the small figures from all over the world.

A photographer living in New York when he first began what he thought would be an inexpensive hobby, he started buying a variety of the bottles from the stores there.

Later, after moving to Michigan, where state law prohibits sales of off-size amounts of liquor, he started commissioning friends who traveled to Europe, where most of the bottles are made.

"YOU CAN PICK UP a glass miniature, say in Italy, for maybe 49 cents," he said, "but by the time it gets to you, it may cost $5 or $6. Still, that's a lot less than the trip to Europe to get it."

Most of Weiss' collection is packed away, waiting for suitable space in the new Plymouth home to which he and his wife, Mary, moved a few months ago.

Some have been on display temporarily in the Livonia antique store, Bentiques, he has been operating for about a year.

Taking out a few samples, he introduced a Spanish seniorita and companion flamenco dancer, a brown stoneware bulldog and kangaroo, a solemn black figure in Inca Pisco from Peru, a set of soldiers from France and a whole assortment of Delft figures from Holland.

One of the most-sought items for the miniature bottle collecting set is a Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs series. There are only 12 of these in the country, Weiss said.

His prize probably is a set of six apothecary jars. "Most people who collect may have five of them," he said "but I have the whole set."

He also has a helmet rye bottle he found in a flea market sale. "I understand there's only one other in Michigan," he said, "and an appraiser told me he really couldn't put a price on it."

IN THE LAST FEW years, Weiss said, a kind of commercialism has begun to "take some of the fun out of this hobby."

"All the companies have started coming out with series," he said, "so you could just go on endlessly buying new bottles."

"My cutoff point is that from here in, I won't get any of the new ones. But I'm still on the lookout for some of the older issues."

Tournament play puts great emphasis on partnership effort. A good understanding of bidding and defense is the key to success.

Club games, when players play more for entertainment with a series of partners, offer a different challenge. The partnership understanding is frequently limited and adaptability is a major factor.

West led the queen of diamonds. South opened with an artificial forcing bid. He had good prospects of making ten tricks. With favorable vulnerability, West preempted in diamonds. He could have gone down three doubled for 500 and a good score.

After North passed, East decided to increase the pressure by raising his partner to five. This wasn't wise, but South was unwilling to give up and was delighted to hear his partner continue to the heart slam.

Speculative doubles of slam contracts are mathematically unwise and East should have passed quietly. He thought his honor strength was adequate, and it was, but he had challenged South, and South began to get a picture.

South was disappointed when he saw the dummy. He was sure East had the club ace and since the only other trick was the heart king, he concluded East had all three hearts.

If a card like the nine of hearts had been in dummy, there would have been no defense, but as the cards are, declarer can only finesse once.

SOUTH WON the lead and played a spade. A second high spade provided a club discard. He now led a heart from dummy and was surprised when East played the two. If East had three, he had made a careless play. When he thought about East's five diamond call and the double, he played the three and was delighted when West discarded a diamond.

Of course, he could now repeat the finesse and claim the slam and West could explain to East that thoughtless bidding gave South a psychological advantage.

Fourth quarter rally gets East past Hawks

By JIM BRADLEY

North Farmington's Raiders invaded Garden City East in a Northwest Suburban League clash Friday night and scared the wits out of the Panthers before East scored twice within 30 seconds in the last quarter to take an exciting, 22-15, victory before an overflow homecoming crowd.

It was the heroics of quarterback Wally Krol's passing and running against the stellar performances of North Farmington's great brother act, John and Paul Patek, that kept hearts churning in the last quarter.

East went into the clash with a 3-0-1 record overall and 1-0 in the Northwest Suburban while North Farmington had a 1-3 mark and was 0-2 in league play.

After a scoreless first period, East got on the scoreboard in the second period when quarterback Krol drove the Panthers 80 yards in 11 plays for the go-ahead score. Four key passes spurred the march. Krol hit end Greg Emery with aerials of 22 and 11 yards beginning the journey and then connected with Dan Loacano and flanker Brian Dominick with a pair of 14-yarders later. Fullback Keith Sieczkowski bulled 10 yards to paydirt. Bob Taraskavage kicked the point and East took a 7-0 halftime edge.

After the half time homecoming activities, North Farmington turned into a most ungracious visitor as the Patek brothers went into their act. Quarterback Larry Lichtman moved the Raiders 70 yards in nine plays for the tying TD. Two Lichtman passes, 18 yards to Ken Strom and 14 yards to John Patek put the Raiders in business. John Patek raced 18 yards just before brother Paul, a junior tailback, zig-zagged 10 yards to score. John Patek added the tying point.

Early in the fourth quarter, the Patek brothers put on a performance as John punted out of bounds on East's two yard line. John averaged 50 yards per kickoff in the game and 44 yards per punt. Two plays later, John collared Krol in the end zone for a safety and N.F. led, 9-7.

The 'performing Pateks' weren't done yet. On the ensuing free kick, Ken Strom returned 15 yards to the Panther 38-yard line and Paul Patek, a sterling senior end and backfield star, raced over the left side of his line, cut to the sidelines and scooted 38 yards for the score as the Raiders increased their lead to 15-7 with eight minutes left in the game. Dave McCall blocked the kick.

While East fans kept hoping for a last-minute miracle to make homecoming a success, Krol put on the magician's cape and performed the feat. He drove the trailing, unbeaten Panthers 50 yards, finally hitting junior split end Dan Loacano with a 20-yard pass for a touchdown and the East partisans erupted with a roar.

On the two-point conversion, Krol was tripped by a North Farmington tackler and almost went down, but stumbled forward enough to flip a pass to open end Greg Emery for the tying two-point conversion.

The Panthers kicked off to the Raiders and on the first play North Farmington was penalized five yards back to their 15. On the next play, a fumbled handoff bounced free on the ground and was covered by an East player as pandemonium reigned.

Krol dashed 15 yards off left tackle on the first play for the deciding touchdown. East had scored two touchdowns in 30 seconds and Taraskavage added the point as East won, 22-15.

Senior Krol, playing his first year at quarterback, connected on 11 of 18 passes for 150 yards and one touchdown. Another three were right on target but were dropped by anxious receivers. Keith Sieczkowski, East's 'fireplug' fullback, gained 62 yards on 20 rushes, as the Panthers rolled up 228 total yards.

Paced by John Patek's 65 yards in 11 carries and brother Paul's 60 yards in seven tries, North Farmington traveled 93 yards on the ground. The Raiders added just 41 more through the air for a total 134 yards.

It was especially disheartening for coach Ron Holland's Raiders after they had taken the 15-7 last quarter lead. But East's homecoming was complete as the alumni were treated to the last minute win by Coach Gary Humphrey's undefeated squad.

East goes from the frying pan into the fire as it travels to Livonia Franklin this Saturday against the Patriots in another Northwest Suburban League showdown at 2 p.m.

North Farmington, now 1-4, will host the Redford Thurston Eagle squad in another NSL game this Friday.

Rocks slip by in 2 overtimes

It may not have been the team of a year ago that beat out all others in the Michigan High School Athletic Association on-paper state football tournament, but Plymouth Salem served notice Friday night that it was now a team to be contended with in the Suburban Eight League, upsetting Livonia Bentley 21-20 in double overtime.

"I feel that we have been playing better every week... that we have been maturing," said Salem coach Tom Moshimer after the Rocks' biggest win of the year.

Salem is a young team this year—starting as many as seven underclassmen on offense and five on defense—but it was a trio of veterans who came through to up the Rocks' record to 2-3.

Senior Howard Inch, playing over an injury, crashed through the Bulldog line after Bentley had scored in the second overtime to block a conversion attempt and keep the Rocks down by only six points.

Senior Charlie Johnson sweep through the middle of the line on a counter play seconds later to tally his second touchdown of the night and tie the game at 20-20.

AND SENIOR Richard Dougherty, who had been having his troubles with the kicking game earlier this season, coolly sent his conversion kick through the middle of the uprights for the third time that evening to give the game to Salem.

The teams had traded first and third quarter touchdowns to force the overtime.

Junior quarterback Ben Wilcox had started Salem with a quarterback sneak for the Rocks' initial points of the game and Johnson added his first six-pointer on a four-yard jaunt in the third stanza.

Bentley countered with a one-yard plunge in the first quarter by Tim Oakley and six-yard run by substitute quarterback Mark White in the third quarter.

Bentley won the flip to start the overtime and chose to defend. Johnson was stopped by the Bulldog interior line on the first series and Bentley took over.

On its first attempt to score in the overtime period, Bentley was stifled by linebacker John Genrich who burst through to force a fumble which Reed Albert covered for the Rocks.

Salem also chose to defend in the second overtime and Bentley took full advantage of its offensive opportunity when White hit Mike Robbins on a bootleg pass from 10 yards out on the first play.

But Inch made his crucial penetration and Johnson and Dougherty proceeded to run and kick Bentley to its third loss in five outings.

"It was a very physical game. Bentley played a very good game and hit our team as hard as any team has this year," Moshimer said.

Salem will journey to Dearborn next Friday for a 4 p.m. game while Bentley will host Redford Union in a 7:30 p.m. affair.

Trojans remain in league lead

Livonia Clarenceville will be in an unusual position when it takes the field next Friday at Dearborn Heights Annapolis.

A victory would give the Trojans their first football conference championship in recent history.

"I think we won a football title around 1955. I've been here nine years and the closest we've come was in 1971 when we were second," said Clarenceville coach Ralph Weddle.

Bentley girls top Belleville

Livonia Bentley took its first girls' league swim meet of the season last week, defeating Belleville, 58-25.

Double winners in the meet for Bentley were Lisa Bowman, Cindy Brown and Vicci Brown.

In addition, Cindy Brown swam for two school records with victories on the 100 fly (1:01.2) and the individual medley (2:20.8).

Bentley took firsts in every event except the 500 freestyle.

Friday night the Trojans moved a step closer to that goal Friday with a convincing 34-0 pounding of Woodhaven.

Rick Canady was the driving force for the Trojans as he has been all year. The senior back compiled 150 yards in 24 carries and scored two touchdowns to lead the Clarenceville attack.

Canady got the Trojans on the board with a five-yard jaunt in the opening quarter and later added a 45-yarder as Clarenceville kept its Metro West League record perfect.

George Scholes capped a 70-yard drive in the second quarter with a keeper play from one yard out to put Clarenceville on top 14-0 at the half and the Trojans waltzed in from there.

Rob Reed's two-yard plunge got Clarenceville rolling in the second half and Canady added his long run with freshman quarterback Tim Beyer's bullet to Mark Martin to complete the Trojan scoring.

Annapolis' only loss in league play came at the hands of Clarenceville less than a month ago. All other teams in the league have lost more than once so if the Trojans can come up with the big game on Friday, they will assure themselves of at least a tie for league honors.

"All the marbles will be on the table against Annapolis," Weddle said.

Kennedy crushes errant West

Mistake-plagued Garden City West traveled to Taylor Kennedy Friday night and were stung 27-7 by a band of poised Eagles who ran their Tri-River League record to 4-0 while Charley Elmquist's Tigers fell to 3-1.

While West was making mistakes like not wearing their mouth guards, shoving the opposing players after the whistle and coaches sending in a player after the play had started, Kennedy coolly came from behind to win.

West moved crisply to a touchdown the first time it had the ball, marching 73 yards in nine plays, aided by a 15-yard penalty. Halfback Bill Underwood bulled six yards over tackle for the score and John Stuprya added the point as West jumped to a 7-0 lead with 4:45 left in the first quarter.

Kennedy was stung by the West touchdown and came right back to drive 62 yards in seven plays, also aided by a 15-yard penalty, as tailback Tom Schuck dove one yard for the score. Dale Stuprya broke through and blocked the extra point attempt and West clung to its 7-6 lead.

West left its successful ground game and two incomplete passes forced them to punt to Kennedy's 29 yard line.

Tom Schuck, a 5-7, 140 pound speedster, delighted the sparse dad's night crowd with a 71-yard sprint off left tackle as he cut to the sideline and outraced West's defenders. Schuck played a tremendous game for the Eagles, scoring two TDs on runs of one and 71 yards, caught a two-point conversion pass and gained 144 yards on 18 carries.

Again the two-point run was stopped and Kennedy led, 12-7, as the first quarter ended.

With Kennedy leading, 12-7, and West trying to score, three key plays turned the game completely around and gave the host Eagles an insurmountable edge.

West safety Dale Stuprya intercepted quarterback Randy Terry's pass on the Tigers' 45-yard line and two Bill Underwood carries took the ball to Kennedy's 47. On third-and-two came the first of three vital plays. Terry Bradley skipped off tackle for a first down at Kennedy's 43 but a West player who was hurriedly substituted by the West coaches as the play began didn't put in his mouth guard.

Instead of a first down, the 15-yard penalty set West back to third-and-17 and a West receiver pushed the Kennedy defender after the ball fell incomplete for another 15-yard penalty. West punted and then held Kennedy to set up the third mental mistake by the Tigers.

A high booming punt by Kennedy hit on the West 30 and bounced rapidly toward the Tiger goal line as Kennedy players pursued. The West deep man, trying to block an opponent from downing the ball on the one, had the ball take a crazy bounce, hit him on the back of the leg and Kennedy recovered on the Tiger one yardline.

It was a gift touchdown as senior fullback Jeff Kozil knifed the distance to put Kennedy up, 18-7, and the two-point pass to Schuck made it 20-7 at the half.

West made two first downs in its opening second half drive, but a fumble killed that drive and the slim Tiger chances. Later, a six-yard West punt ended up on the Tiger 26 and Kennedy moved the 26 yards in 10 plays as back-up quarterback Ken Wood sprinted around left end for the final eight yards.

It was the first time in five games that any team had marched on the ground to score against the Tigers since John Glenn did it once opening game. Underwood gained 69 yards in 13 rushes while Bradley moved 39 yards in seven carries.

West hopes to get things working smoothly as Dearborn Heights Crestwood comes to town at 7:30 p.m. Friday night in the Tigers' homecoming game.

Borgess win sets up showdown

A homecoming victory, a chance to take a commanding lead in its first year in a new league and, most importantly, an opportunity to find out just how good a football team it really has.

Those are the elements which will face Redford Township Bishop Borgess this Sunday when it takes the field at Thurston High School at 2:30 p.m. following its Friday night 22-13 victory over U-D High School.

And the Spartans could not have a better opponent than the one on the schedule as top rated Class A power Birmingham Brother Rice moves in for the Sunday clash.

The Friday night victory was closer than expected as Borgess had to come from behind to beat the upstart Cubs in a game played at Hamtramck's Keyworth Stadium.

U-D scored first late in the second quarter when Rick Smart went three yards to cap a short drive set up by a scuffed Borgess punt.

On their next possession, however, the Spartans countered with a 10-yard Keith Studzinski to Kevin McKee scoring pass. Bruce Berry kicked the go-ahead point with 1:32 remaining in the half.

The touchdown climaxed a 58-yard, 10-play drive that was highlighted by senior halfback Jim Kozlowski's 22-yard ramble on the third play.

AND THE SPARTANS took command for good shortly after intermission.

This time it was U-D's giving more than Borgess' taking as the Titans let the opening kickoff of the half bounce away and Paul Sugar covered the ball on the Cub two yardline.

On the next play, fullback Keith Kleinsmith smashed over and Berry's conversion made it 14-6.

But the Cubs refused to quit and took the ensuing kickoff 75 yards in 11 plays to get back in the game. Don Southern registered an interception for the Spartans during that drive but it was nullified by a penalty.

U-D began to march again early in the fourth quarter but Mark Koltun-chic picked off a pass on the Cubs' 40 and on the next play from scrimmage Jim Kozlowski ran 34 yards up the middle to put the Spartans in scoring position.

Two plays later Kleinsmith muscled over from the two for the final touchdown.

A Studzinski to McKee two-point conversion on a play-action pass gave the Spartans some insurance.

Southern later recorded an interception and Borgess attempted a 36-yard field goal but saw the attempt go wide.

Kozlowski led all rushers, picking up 119 yards in 20 carries to register his third straight 100-yard plus performance.

Kleinsmith added 48 yards on just five carries.

Michael Ostrach, who blocked the first Cub PAT attempt and played both ways in a tackle slot and John Wedesky, a senior who plays center and defensive tackle, also both had outstanding efforts for the night.

LIVONIANS JIM WENSON (46) and Gary MacKinley (93) are freshmen members of Western Michigan University's 1975 football squad. Wenson earned wide acclaim as a tailback at Dearborn Divine Child High School where he played both football and basketball, while MacKinley was an outstanding linebacker at Livonia Bentley. With the duo is Bronco Defensive Coordinator Bob Sutton.

Tough Charger defense shuts out Western

Livonia Churchill continues to live by its strong defense as Ken Kaestner's Chargers drubbed Walled Lake Western, 18-0, spoiling the latter's homecoming and thrusting Churchill into a tie for the Western Six lead with Farmington Harrison with a 3-0 record.

"We played tough defense again," Kaestner beamed after his team ran its overall record to 4-1. "Mike Streicher did a good job at quarterback and tailback Bill Coyle carried the ball very well for us."

Streicher got Churchill on the scoreboard with about five minutes left in the first quarter when he capped a 12-play, 73-yard drive with a one-yard sneak. The kick sailed wide to the right and Churchill led, 6-0.

Tough defense on both sides kept the score unchanged as the teams entered the locker room at halftime.

According to Kaestner, defensive right end, Kurt Pitcher, linebacker Tim Curran and defensive left end John Curran were outstanding on defense.

Two Charger TD's put the game out of reach in the third quarter, much to the dismay of the alumni from Walled Lake.

Streicher scored his second TD early in the third stanza on a three yard run but the two-point conversion pass fell incomplete as Livonia Churchill led, 12-0.

Tailback Bill Coyle, who churned 100 yards in 19 carries, zipped off right tackle then cut to the center of the field and raced 25 yards for the third Charger score. Again the conversion pass was no good and Churchill shut the door on any Western attempt to score.

Churchill notched 18 first downs on 234 yards rushing and 102 passing for a total of 336. Western, held to one pass completion in 10 attempts for six yards, could only muster 84 yards on the ground for 90 yards total, with seven first downs. Streicher hit 8 of 13 passes for 102 yards.

"This really sets the stage for an exciting time," Kaestner added. "We play Plymouth Canton at their field at 8 p.m. Friday night while Farmington Harrison plays Walled Lake Western. If Churchill and Harrison wins, that'll set the stage for the championship game the following week."

Canton, a one touchdown loser to Northville Friday night, will have ideas of their own come Friday night. In the Western Six race, Churchill and Harrison have 3-0 records, ahead of Northville, Canton and Waterford Mott, each with 1-2 while winless Walled Lake Western (0-3) is in the basement.

Furious Chief rally falls just short

By BILL COLLINS

A Plymouth Canton rally late in the game fell short of the mark, as the Northville Mustangs staved off the Chief comeback to post a 27-20 victory before their homecoming fans.

Northville jumped out to a 7-0 lead when halfback Eric Armstrong ran their fourth play from scrimmage for a 53-yard touchdown. Another score was nullified by a holding penalty.

The wings of the Canton offense were grounded in the first quarter. Canton managed only one first down in the opening stanza, losing two fumbles in their own territory.

Canton senior safety Tom Close kept a Mustang drive deep in their own end when he picked off a pass and returned the ball to the Northville 45.

Close's interception gave the Chiefs their best field position of the night. Plymouth capitalized on the turnover nine plays later when Dave Pink gathered in an eight-yard pass from Close to move Canton within one, 7-6, as the conversion failed.

Northville began their next series on their own 30 with five minutes to go in the first half.

Eric Anderson picked up 16 yards on a third down play, and Bruce McClory chalked up the second first down of the drive taking an Eric Lampella pass to the Canton 37.

Lampella, the Mustang signal caller, went to the air on the next play and found flanker Greg Harper wide open for a 36-yard gain to the one yardline.

Two plays later Lampella scored on a dive over left tackle. The conversion was good and Northville held a 14-6 lead at the intermission.

Northville returned the second half kickoff to their own 40 and wasted no time in increasing their lead.

On the ensuing play Lampella hit Greg Harper on a fly pattern down the right sideline for a 60-yard scoring play. The conversion was good and after 20 seconds of the second half had elapsed Northville led, 21-6.

Canton took over and their drive bogged down at midfield. Northville's Eric Anderson returned the Chief punt 40 yards setting up the final Mustang scoring march.

Starting at the Canton 45 quarterback Lampella engineered the drive in seven plays. The big play was a 20-yard run by halfback Anderson to the Canton 14.

Ted Armstrong sprinted the final 11 yards to give Northville a 27-6 margin with 5:47 left in the third quarter.

Early in the fourth quarter the Chiefs smothered a loose ball on their own 10 yardline.

Plymouth then began their most impressive offensive effort of the season. After halfback Scott Gray picked up a first down to the Northville 22, the Chiefs reeled off six consecutive first downs.

A 25-yard run by Jim Tiller, a pass interference penalty against Northville, a run by Tom Close, a 23-yard pass to Jerry Symonds, plus a 10-yard run by Mike Ogden put the ball on the Mustang three yard line. On fourth down Close went over from the one and Canton trailed 27-12 as the conversion was stopped.

An onside kick recovered by Canton's Mike Nyhus at the Northville 44-yard line gave the Chiefs added inspiration.

Senior halfback Jim Tiller gained 14 yards on the next play plus a Northville facemasking penalty gave Canton a first down at the Mustang 15. Mike Ogden then climaxed the drive by going in from the two yardline.

An attempt at the two-point conversion was successful as Scott Gray plunged into the end zone after shedding several Northville defenders. With 8:49 remaining Canton had dramatically changed the complexion of the

Thurston muscles to first victory

The long drought ended for Thurston High School Friday as its football team, which had come close to victory in each of its first four games this year without being able to cash in, finally put a complete game together, pasting Milford 20-6.

Actually it was more like a complete quarter as far as the offense was concerned as Thurston scored all of its points in the second quarter.

Greg Abundis was the stalwart in the offensive department. The senior back rushed for 160 yards in 13 carries and scored two touchdowns in a victory that Eagle coach Don Reihl hopes will turn his team around.

"This was an important win for us. We can win a few now," Reihl said.

After Milford had scored in the first quarter on a halfback pass play, Brian Garber evened the score when he took a Roy Pilgion pitchout early in the second quarter and raced 17 yards for the score.

Abundis booted the extra point and Thurston led.

Later in the quarter Abundis scooted in on runs of 10 and 53 yards to give the Eagles their winning margin.

In the second half, it was all Thurston defense as the Eagles held Milford to a negative 15 yards total offense.

Milford had 55 yards for the night.

The tackle combination of Richard Graustein and Bob Zichichi led the defense as it bottled up any Milford offense and threw runners for losses consistently in the final two stanzas.

Thurston will play at North Farmington this Friday.

"We're going to be there. We've played some pretty good teams and we're not quitting," Reihl said.

Redford Union drops fifth game to Belleville

You are only as old as you feel, the saying goes, and Redford Union coach Bob Atkins knows the feeling.

"I'm ready to collect Social Security. I'm 38 going on 68," he said.

Atkins saw his young Panther team do everything but score Friday night as Redford Union played Belleville to a virtual standstill for three quarters of play before falling 15-0.

RU had the ball within their opponents' 25 yardline six times in the game but failed to come up with the big play and saw its record fall to 0-5.

"This was real good football tonight. But we just couldn't get the ball into the endzone," Atkins said.

For most of the game, neither could Belleville.

It took three passing plays of 40, 29 and 10 yards from Tiger quarterback Dan Scripser to Russ Rooks for Belleville to finally get on the board with 0:39 left in the third quarter.

The other Tiger score came in the waning minutes of the game when RU, forced by the circumstances to pass, saw Tom Caine step into the flats, intercept a pass and scurry down the sidelines for the final margin with 2:58 remaining.

There were several bright spots for Redford Union, however.

Sophomore running back Brian Macek picked up 138 yards on 21 carries for the day and linebacker Steve Zink and noseguard Kevin Adler led the Panther defense which kept the Tigers caged for most of the evening.

Doug Lowney's three interceptions capped another fine defensive showing for the senior safety.

Redford Union will travel to Livonia Bentley next Friday to play the Bulldogs in a 7:30 p.m. game.

Spartans top Hawk girls

Livonia Stevenson kept its record perfect after four dual meets last week, beating Farmington Harrison in a girl's swimming dual meet. The dual meet victory came in addition to the Spartan girls' recent victories in the Harrison Relays and the Redford Union Relays.
